

PROCLAMATION

We the Mayor and the City Council, by virtue of the authority vested by the City of Galveston, Texas, do proclaim

Chef's Appreciation Day
August 16, 2014
in the City of Galveston

WHEREAS, The National Pink Tie organization bands men together to support the fight against cancer by encouraging men to wear a pink or fuchsia tie to raise awareness, educate and empower the community about cancer; and

WHEREAS, Chef's feed and nurture us throughout our lives. But who is there for them when they fall?; and

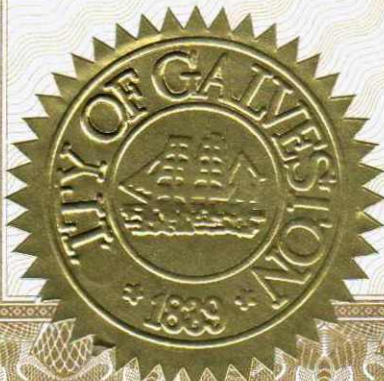

WHEREAS, Our Chef's Against Cancer division involves over 400,000 chefs and is growing rapidly worldwide. These are busy professionals who volunteer to stand beside fellow chefs and their immediate family members who are facing one of the most stressful times of their lives; and

WHEREAS, every third Saturday in August, chefs, physicians, nutritionists and fitness trainers gather to promote healthy living and cooking, but most importantly, to uplift one another, and to give back to those who have already helped so many others realize how truly wonderful a happy, healthy life can taste; and

WHEREAS, Galvestonians support the fight against cancer, honoring the survivors and remembering those who will forever live in our hearts.

THEREFORE, BE IT PROCLAIMED, that the Mayor and City Council for the City of Galveston, Texas, join in proclaiming August 16, 2014 as Chefs Appreciation Day in this community and encourage all of our citizens to thank our chefs.

In testimony whereof, witness my hand and the Seal of the City of Galveston, this 16th day of August, 2014.
