

Proclamation

WHEREAS, the National Pink Tie Organization (NPTO) has a mission of banding men together in the fight against cancer, and a vision of men nationwide wearing pink or fuchsia ties to raise awareness, educate and empower the community about cancer; and

WHEREAS, the NPTO's Chef's Against Cancer involves over 400,000 chefs and is growing rapidly worldwide; and

WHEREAS, NPTO chefs have made the commitment that their colleagues will not be alone when the going gets tough; and

WHEREAS, every third Saturday in August, chefs, physicians, nutritionist, and fitness trainers gather to promote healthy living and cooking, uplift one another, and give back to those who have already helped so many others realize how truly wonderful a happy, healthy life can taste; and

WHEREAS, the City of Reno supports the efforts in the fight against cancer, honor the survivors and remembering those who will forever live in our hearts; and

WHEREAS, it is fitting that the City of Reno extend official recognition to the National Pink Tie Organization and support its efforts in the fight against cancer.

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Robert A. Cashell, Sr., Mayor of the City of Reno, Nevada, do hereby proclaim

Saturday, August 16, 2014, as CHEF'S APPRECIATION DAY

In and for the City of Reno, Nevada, and encourage all citizens to give recognition and appreciation to the National Pink Tie Organization for their dedication to raise awareness and educate the community about cancer.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have set my hand and caused the Seal of the City of Reno, Nevada, to be affixed this thirteenth day of August 2014.

Robert A. Cashell, Sr., Mayor
City of Reno

ATTEST:
Lynnette Jones, City Clerk
City of Reno
