

City of St. Augustine

La Lealísima y Valerosa Ciudad de San Agustín de la Florida

1565 - 2015

PROCLAMATION

Whereas, The National Pink Tie Organization has a mission of banding men together in the fight against cancer, and a vision of men nationwide wearing pink or fuchsia ties to raise awareness, educate and empower the community about cancer; and

Whereas, the NPFO's Chefs Against Cancer involves over 400,000 chefs and is growing rapidly worldwide; and

Whereas, NPFO chefs have made the commitment that their colleagues will not be alone when the going gets tough; and

Whereas, historically, chefs have shown great compassion to others, knowing that few things are better for both the body and the soul than a well-crafted, sublimely prepared and lovingly presented meal; and

Whereas, the NPFO is partnering with chefs in many different cities to celebrate Chefs Against Cancer and Chefs Appreciation Day, involving chefs, physicians, nutritionists and fitness trainers will gather to promote healthy living and cooking, but most importantly, to uplift one another; and

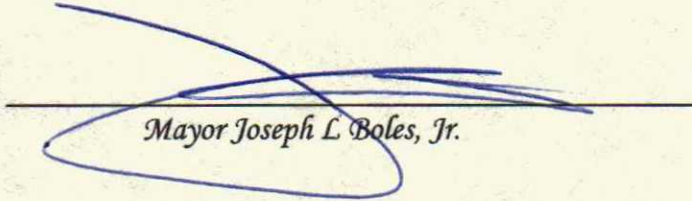

Whereas, the citizens of the City of St. Augustine support the fight against cancer, honoring the survivors and remembering those who will forever live in our hearts.

NOW THEREFORE, the City of St. Augustine City Commission does hereby proclaim August 16, 2014 as Chef's Appreciation Day and invites the citizens of St. Augustine to thank our chefs, remembering that it truly is about supporting the fight against cancer, honoring the survivors and remembering those who will forever live in our hearts.

2014-22

IN WITNESS WHEREOF I hereunto set my hand and do cause the Seal of the City of St. Augustine, Florida, to be affixed on this 16th day of August, in the year of our Lord two thousand fourteen, in the four hundred and forty-eighth year of the founding of St. Augustine, the Nation's Oldest City.

Mayor Joseph L. Boles, Jr.

"Most Loyal and Valorous"

Title conferred upon the Presidio of St. Augustine by King Philip V of Spain, November 26, 1715